

“Can You Feel It”, “I’ll Be There”, “ABC” and “I Want You Back”. And the show didn’t end there. Together with Britney Spears, Michael sang “The Way You Make Me Feel”.

One highlight followed the next as “Billie Jean” and “Beat It” created the most excitement, the audience responding with repeated standing ovations. Michael’s friend and hard rock guitarist Slash supported the already catching performance of “Beat It” and “Black Or White”. Michael sang and danced as if he had never left the stage and his confidence was obvious. At the end of the mega event the Michael Jackson hymn was performed. Accompanying “We Are The World” were Dionne Warwick, Yoko Ono and Kenny Rogers. It was impossible not to have tears

The King Of Pop together with Britney Spears, The Princess Of Pop, singing “The way You Make Me Feel” (right)

Michael and Slash rock together to “Billy Jean” (left)

